Employee of the Month - Lehi City

Captain Jake Beck was chosen as Employee of the Month for August from Lehi City. In his nomination memo, Battalion Chief Rick Howard had this to say:

“I feel that I need to take this avenue to share with you some of the recent accomplishments that Captain Beck has been involved with which bring a positive light to Lehi City Fire Department.

Continuous and productive training is very important in our profession. High impact situations with low impact opportunities make it necessary to provide training that is realistic and will keep our crews aware and up to date to the vast array of situations that take the lives of firefighters almost every day. Because we are creatures of habit, the phrase “we play the way we train” puts lifesaving actions for the firefighters in their muscle memory and makes their reactions almost automatic. Knowing how to instinctively react productively in dangerous situations will save lives. Training provides that.

Some examples of training that Jake has been involved in are: Acquired live structure burns, Burn house training, Driver training task books, LifeFlight training, Technical rescue, and Recertification issues.”

Great job Jake on this well deserved award!

Captain Jake Beck
