EXHIBIT “A”

CHAPTER 5.48

SOLICITORS, CANVASSERS AND PEDDLERS

SECTION:

5.48.010 PURPOSE

Residents of Lehi City have an inalienable interest in their personal safety, well-being, and privacy in their Residences, as well as their ability to provide or receive information regarding matters of personal belief, political or charitable activities, and goods and services lawfully in commerce. The city has a substantial interest in protecting the well-being, tranquility, personal safety, and privacy of its citizens, which includes the ability to protect citizens from unwanted intrusions upon residential property. The city also has a substantial interest in protecting citizens from fraud or otherwise unfair consumer sales practices as well as criminal activity.

There must be a balance between these substantial interests of the city and its citizens, and the effect of the regulations in this chapter on the rights of those who are regulated. Based on the collective experiences of city officials derived from regulating business activity, protecting persons and property from criminal conduct, responding to the inquiries of citizens regarding Door to Door Solicitation, the experience of its law enforcement officers and those affected by Door to Door Solicitation and canvassing, as well as judicial decisions outlining the boundaries of constitutional protections afforded and denied persons seeking to engage in Door to Door Solicitation, the city adopts this chapter to promote the city's substantial interests in: respecting citizens' decisions regarding privacy in their Residences; protecting persons from criminal conduct; providing equal opportunity to advocate for and against Religious Belief, Political Position, or Charitable Activities; and permitting truthful and non-misleading Door to Door Solicitation regarding lawful Goods or Services in intrastate or interstate commerce.

The city finds that the procedures, rules and regulations set forth in this chapter are narrowly tailored to preserve and protect the city interests referred to herein while at the same time balancing the rights of those regulated.

An Applicant or Registered Solicitor whose Certificate has been denied or suspended shall have the right to appeal to the city council or its designee. Any appeal must be submitted by either the Applicant, the Responsible Person or Entity, or legal counsel for either who: a) documents the relationship with the Applicant or Responsible Person or Entity; or b) is licensed or authorized by the state of Utah to do so, and makes the assertion of an agency relationship. The following procedures and requirements shall apply:

- A. Any appeal must be Submitted in Writing to the city recorder with a copy to the license officer within ten (10) Business Days of the decision from which the appeal is taken. Such appeal shall describe in detail the nature of the appeal, the action complained of and the grounds for appeal.
- B. Upon request of the Applicant or Registered Solicitor, within one Business Day, the city will make available any information upon which it relied in making the determination to either deny or suspend the Certificate.
- C. The Appeals Officer shall review, de novo, all written information submitted by the Applicant or Registered Solicitor to the Licensing Officer, any additional information relied upon by the Licensing Officer as the basis for denial, suspension or revocation, and any additional information supplied by the city, Applicant or Registered Solicitor. Any additional information submitted by any party to the appeal to the Appeals Officer shall be simultaneously submitted to the opposing party. If desired, any party shall have three (3) Business Days to submit rebuttal documentation to the Appeals Officer regarding the additional information submitted by the opposing party.
- D. The Appeals Officer will render a decision no later than fifteen (15) calendar days from the date the appeal was taken, unless an extension of time is agreed upon by the parties. In the event that any party to the appeal submits rebuttal information as allowed in subsection C of this section, the fifteen (15) calendar days shall be extended to include the additional three (3) days for rebuttal.

1. The denial or suspension of the Certificate shall be reversed by the Appeals Officer if upon review of the written appeal and information submitted, the Appeals Officer finds that the Licensing Officer made a material mistake of law or fact in denying or suspending the Applicant or Registered Solicitor's Certificate.
 2. If the written appeal and information submitted indicates that the Licensing Officer properly denied or suspended the Certificate of the Applicant or Registered Solicitor, the denial or suspension of the Certificate shall be affirmed and constitute a determination that the suspended Certificate is revoked.
 3. The decision of the Appeals Officer shall be delivered to the Applicant or Registered Solicitor by the means designated in the Completed Application, or as otherwise agreed upon when the appeal was filed.
- E. After the ruling of the Appeals Officer, the Applicant or Solicitor is deemed to have exhausted all administrative remedies with the city.
- F. Nothing herein shall impede or interfere with the Applicant's, Solicitor's, or city's right to seek relief in a court of competent jurisdiction. However, an Applicant or Solicitor must first exhaust its administrative remedies before seeking relief in a court of competent jurisdiction.
