YOUTH FLOORBALL CAMP JULY 28 & 29, 2016

This two day camp will provide participants with the basic floorball skills and knowledge of the rules and teach them how to safely play the game. The following skills will be covered:

- Passing
- Shooting
- dribbling
- basic game situations

As part of this camp the kids will get the opportunity to play in a tournament on the second day. Teams for the tournament will be divided according to age and skill level during the first day of instruction. Each team will get a minimum of four games, jersey, and participation medal. Equipment will be provided during the camp and tournament. Participants should come dressed to run around, with good indoor shoes, and a water bottle.

Jyri Koivisto, Lehi resident from Finland, will lead the instruction for this camp. Jyri is the owner of Utah Saints Floorball Club and regional director for U19 for men and women for Team USA.
