FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LEHI CITY CELEBRATES FAMILIES WITH LEHI FAMILY WEEK

Week Full of Family-Centered Activities

Lehi, Utah | November 19, 2014 – For the past 14 years, Lehi City has taken one week to celebrate families and strengthen family relationships. This year’s Family Week will be held from Sunday, November 23rd to Saturday November 29th.

Lehi Mayor Bert Wilson is a strong supporter of Family Week and encourages everyone to attend the activities. “Lehi Family Week is a wonderful thing to celebrate. It gives us a chance to reflect on the blessings of life and the blessings of those around us,” said Mayor Wilson.

Family Week will open with featured speaker Matt Townsend at 7:00 pm at Willowcreek Middle School. Matt is the president of the Townsend Relationship Center, a host on KSL News Radio, a contributor to KSL TV, and a host on BYU Radio. The evening will also feature the Vivaldi Quartet, the Lehi Family Week Youth Choir, and the Outstanding Lehi Family Award winners.

On November 25th and November 26th, from 11:00 am to 5:00 pm, the Hutching’s Museum will open its doors for free admission with the donation of a non-perishable food item. On November 28th, everyone can enjoy half-price swim day at the Lehi Legacy Center from 8:00 am to 9:00 pm.

On November 29th, at 5:00 pm, families can greet Santa as he rides down Main Street in Lehi’s Santa Parade. The parade route is from Lehi High School to the Main Street Plaza. At the plaza, families can enjoy complimentary hot chocolate and cookies, greet Santa, and listen to a children’s choir. The Lehi City Christmas Tree will also be lit as a part of the festivities.

This year, Family Week will be topped off by a new activity on November 29th, the Family Movie featuring The Muppet Christmas Carol. The movie will be shown in the northwest gym of the Legacy Center. Entrance to the movie is free, and each person will receive free small popcorn. The night will also feature fun prize giveaways. At the event, Boy Scout Carson Stagg will be providing materials for parents to make child identification kits for his Eagle Scout project.
