Governor Takes Advantage of Convenient Polling Location in Lehi

Lehi, Utah | October 27, 2014 – Poll workers at the early voting location at Lehi City Hall received a surprise visit Monday morning as Governor Gary Herbert showed up to vote. Taking advantage of Lehi’s convenient polling location, Governor Herbert was the first voter at the polls in Lehi this morning and shared some smiles with the poll workers, Lehi Mayor Bert Wilson, and Lehi City staff.

“We are happy that Governor Herbert decided to vote in Lehi this morning. Early voting is a great convenience, and Lehi’s location makes voting here even more convenient,” said Lehi Mayor Bert Wilson. Wilson continued, “We encourage everyone to follow the Governor’s example and vote.”
