LEHI CITY TO HOST “THINK PINK’ 5K FOR BREAST CANCER AWARENESS

All Proceeds from Event will benefit the Huntsman Cancer Institute

Lehi, Utah | March 10, 2015 – On Saturday, March 21, 2015, Lehi City will hold the “Think Pink” 5K to raise funds for breast cancer research. All proceeds will benefit the Huntsman Cancer Institute. The race will begin and end at Wines Park in Lehi, and each runner will receive a custom finisher’s medal and a raffle ticket featuring prizes generously donated by companies and individuals throughout Utah County.

Along with raising money to beat breast cancer, the purpose of the race is to challenge people to get active and get involved in a worthy cause. “This is a great chance for the community to come together and support beating a disease that has affected so many different people,” said Lehi City Spokesperson Robert Ranc.

Both runners and walkers of all experience levels are welcome, and the race will feature breast cancer survivors. The registration fee is $25, and interested participants can register online at www.lehi-ut.gov/legacy-center. Interested participants can also register at the Lehi Legacy Center registration office (123 North Main Street in Lehi) Monday – Friday from 8:00 am – 6:00 pm.
