UCCU TO BREAK GROUND FOR NEW OFFICE BUILDING IN LEHI
 New Multi-Level Building Will Contribute to Booming Economic Growth in City

Lehi, Utah | June 23, 2014 – Utah Community Credit Union (UCCU) will be holding a ground breaking ceremony for its new Lehi Pointe office building on Tuesday, June 24th at 11:00 am. The ground breaking will take place at the site of the new building, 3360 North Frontage Road in Lehi.

The building will be 98 feet high and feature 68,000 square feet of office space. The first floor will house a UCCU branch with full service drive-up windows and an ATM, and the upper floors will provide additional office space. The architect for the project is Kevin Scholz & Associates and the general contractor is Westland Construction. Construction is forecasted for completion in 2016.

“This will be a beautiful new office building and a great addition to Lehi. We are excited about the continuing economic growth in the City. We will continue to strive to contribute to Utah’s economy and lead the way for economic development in the State,” said Lehi City Administrator Derek Todd.
