

Peter Schow Home
100 West and 300 South
by Wester Potter

This is the Peter Schow, Randall Schow home on the corner of 100 West and 300 South. Peter was a Danish immigrant and later was the Watermaster in Lehi for many years. He married his wife after her husband, who he had been traveling with from Pioche, was killed by a renegade.

Alvin Schow grew up in this home, the youngest of five brothers. His father was also the youngest of five brothers.
