

Memories of Relief Society Hall

By Wester Potter

I remember playing on the floor under quilts being made on frames at that site. There were many quilts made for the poor in that building. The building is adobe and the stucco exterior was applied, probably around 1940.