Tiffany Heath

ACSM Certified Exercise Physiologist

Tiffany graduated from the University of Utah with her Bachelor's degree in Exercise & Sport Science. She has been certified as a Personal Trainer, aerobics instructor, and Strength & Conditioning Specialist through AFFA, ACSM and NSCA. Over the past 15 years, she has worked with a variety of clients, including former Utah Governor Michael O. Leavitt's Staff while working at the University of Utah's PEAK academy, and Olympic athletes competing in the Salt Lake Winter 2002 games while she worked at TOSH (The Orthopedic Specialty Hospital) in Murray, UT. Tiffany has had the unique opportunity to work in a variety of settings, including Corporate Fitness, Physical Therapy, and Sports Medicine, which has helped her develop some versatile skills to accommodate a wide range of clientele. She has helped numerous clients with weight management, including Lehi City's Slim to Win Grand Prize winner for 2012, who lost 100 pounds during the 6 month contest.
