Round-Up Days Are Coming

WRITTEN BY MAYOR MARK JOHNSON

Our Lehi City yearly celebration is coming. Yup, preparations for the 2021 Round-Up are in full force and it is a welcome change from the heartache of last year. I don't know about you, but I have never anticipated the events as I am now. It is like a breath of fresh air and you are welcome to take that literally!

Previous to June last year we were fretting over which, if any, events could possibly take place. The traditional miniature parade was out, as were all social events. The most difficult blow came when I received a call from Stan Lewis that the rodeo committee had made the difficult decision to cancel the rodeo for the year 2020. This was after a valiant effort to postpone the rodeo until August. The pandemic was going to have its way with us regardless of our efforts. It was not only the events of our Round-Up that would be missed, but we had also learned earlier in the year that we would no longer be entertained by Lecile Harris who at the age of 83, moved on to the next stage of his existence. After his last performance here, I had a great opportunity to spend some time with him. He left me with the great impression of being a dedicated husband and a man with extraordinary depth.

What can we expect for this year? Well, I know the Round-Up committee is working hard to make this another wonderful celebration. You will certainly see some precautionary modifications, but they are moving forward and frankly, I can't wait. I expect this will be a celebration you will not want to miss. So please pick up your tickets for the Rodeo and mark the parades on your calendar. Watch for the published schedule of events where you may find something else of interest!

These events are for everyone's enjoyment so please be neighborly and encourage someone new to the area to join in the festivities. You might have to do some explaining as to why this yearly event is so important to our community. After all, we have been hosting the rodeo since 1937.

So please, grab your boots and grab your hat and then join us in having a lot of fun this year!
