ART CLASS

Do you have a little artist in your house? Come join us for an introductory class of painting, clay, and canvas work! Children will participate in all three days using a variety of techniques and will create a one of a kind masterpiece that they can take home to share.

Tuesday- Feb. 21st -Polymer clay animals- Come join us and learn step by step how to make animals for beginners! Students will be able to put their creativity and dexterity to the test. Instruction will include detail work and how to use different tools to create different effects. Students will be creating at least 5 clay animals to take home.

Wednesday- Feb. 22nd- Intro to canvas painting- Learn to paint with acrylic on canvas by following step by step instructions and discover your own unique style along the way! All supplies are included in this class. Students will be able to take their masterpiece home once it is completed. Please make sure your child wears old clothing or anything that will be okay to get paint on.

Thursday- Feb 23rd- Wood Doll Painting- This class will bring out the little artist in every child. Participants will be using wood dolls and will create characters and/or their family! Students will learn about different detail brushes, paint and techniques to create eyes and fine detail. Please make sure your child wears clothes they can paint in.
